SUES FOR TIMBER.

Jonathan Thomas and Paul Huycke Sued by Uncle Sam.

Jonathan Thomas, wealthy lumberman of Topeka, and his partners, Paul Huyeke of Topeka and J. S. Martin of Poteau. Ok. are charged by the United States government with cutting timber from the public domain near their mills at Oliver, Are ider the pretext of having bought it from homesteaders.

is a suit to recover $21,769.93 for the steaders.

In a suit to recover $21,768.93 for the timber cut, the three members of the Thomas-Huycke-Martin company were made defendents in the United States district court at Topeka. The suit was filed late last evening by District Attorney H. J. Bone and assistant, J. S. West, en instructions from the attorney general at Washington. There are 16 counts against the company, the government contending that Martin as manager at the nills at Oliver purchased the timber from pretended homestenders who filed not in good faith but only to sell off the timber. Their gains were from $450 to $2,650 per entry.

Previous to the filing of the suit a Previous to the filing of the suit a number of attempts were made by the government to settle the matter amicably but the company refused, Mr. Thomas and Mr. Huycke contending they did not know Martin was buying timber from the homesteaders. Evidence gathered by inspectors in the territory tends to show that Paul Huycke did know for he conducted some of the purchases himself.

purchases himself.

Though Huycke and Thomas defend themselves by saying Martin had been instructed not to buy from unperfected entries and that they did not know he did, the government, contemplating that defense, has a report of the interfor department regarding Mr. Thomas as follows:

"The cutting on public lands, for the benefit of said company. Sylvadial and the standard of the said company.

benefit of said company, extended over a period of five years and if Thomas was ignorant of the true state of af-fairs it must have been the result of studied effort to avoid the acquisition of knowledge of this subject." a few days.

Mrs. John Reed spent Wednesday the guest of Mrs. Percy Reed of 423 Madison street.

MANY WILL GET OUT.

The Illinois Supreme Court Holds Parole Law valid.

Joliet, Ill., June 20.—An exodus of prisoners, whose cases have already been brought to the attention of the state parole board will follow the decision of the supreme court at Springfield in holding the parole law valid, according to Warden E. J. Murphy of of the state prison. Newton C. Dougherty, the former Peoria school superintendent and embezzler, probably will be one of those who will beneft. Since the declaration by the supreme bench in February that the law was unconsti-Mr. Weldman and daughter Rose and Mr. John Erker and son of Kansas City have returned home after making a short visit here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kottman on Norris avein Geciaration by the supreme bench in February that the law was unconsti-tutional not a convict has been released except those who have served their regular commitments. Warden Murphy last night commended the court's opinion. He said:

"The present parole law is a grand measure and I am heartily glad it is restored. By its provision of one year's employment for a released convict it allows him a chance to get on his feet allows him a chance to get on his feet. allows him a chance to get on his feet and converts a citizen in most cases to a good one. A large number of de-cisions in cases where the evidence had been taken before February 16 will be made by the board, undoubtedly within a short time, and I expect many pris-oners to gain their freedom. I only wish twice as many could benefit." The Sunday evening service at the Christian church will be the second of the series of meetings, being held each month under the auspices of the Ministerial Union and Industrial council. Rev. W. H. Scrivner will preach the seemon.

PENNELL IS RELEASED.

Reported That Cooley Has Let Heavy Hitting Outfielder Go.

Arthur Pennell, right fielder for the Cooleysox, was released by Dick Cooley at Sioux City, according to a Sioux City paper. Pennell split a finger while catching a fly ball in Tuesday's game and has been out of the lineur since. The loss of the hall requested that Superintendent Richards come to his bedside. He then pleaded that the board of managers which had been in session yesterday be asked to consider the matter of giving him his liberty. "I know I have done wrong," he said, "but oh, don't make the lineup since. The loss of the right fielder will be most heavily felt just now when the whole team seems to have gone to pieces or been battered into that condition. Whether Cooley let Pennell go thinking he would not be able to play again or for additional reasons is not known here.

There seems to be no strings on the release and Pennell will go at once
